

Psalm 95:1-7 (matched to Doherty's melody)

G                    CMaj7                    G
Come, let us sing unto the Lord,
                 Am7                    C                    D
Let us shout with joy to our Rock of sal-va-tion.
G                    CMaj7                    G
Come close with gratitude, adore
                 Am7                    C                    D
Let us lift a voice with songs of ju-bi-la-tion

C G/B                    Am7                    G/B
For He—'s a great God,
                 C                    G                    Bsus
A Great and Mighty King above all others
                 C                    D                    Bsus
Oh, the dee-p, and heights, in his hand
                 C                    D                    G
He made sea, and formed the dry land

G                    CMaj7                    G
Come, let us worship and bow down,
                 Am7                    C                    D
Let us kneel before the Lord our God, our Maker.
G                    CMaj7                    G
Come, let us worship and bow down,
                 Am7                    C                    D
Let us kneel before the Lord our God, our Maker

C G/B                    Am7                    G/B
For He----- is our God,
                 C                    G                    Bsus
And we are the people of His pasture,
                 C D                    Bsus
And the shee-p of His hand,
                 C D                    G
And the shee-p of His hand,
